The good faith deposit will only be transacted if the camper who received an airline ticket paid for by Friends of Camp Māk-A-Dream does not use the ticket for any reason other than medical. Friends of Camp Māk-A-Dream must receive a written letter (within 2 weeks from date of travel) from the camper's doctor verifying the camper was medically unfit to travel on the scheduled date. If the camper does not use the provided airline ticket on the designated date and time for any other reason, the good faith deposit will be transacted.

I understand the above and will comply with the good faith deposit.
